4 Your Responsibilities as a Hospital Patient 醫院病人的責任

Medical care within a hospital environment is a partnership between patients and health care workers. As well as giving you the basic rights which we have just outlined, this also brings with it certain basic responsibilities on your part. To play an active and responsible role in the health care process, you should:

- + Give your health care providers as much information as you can about your present health, past illnesses, any allergies and any other relevant details.
- + Follow the prescribed and agreed treatment plan, and conscientiously comply with the instructions given.
- + Show consideration for the rights of other patients and health care providers, by following the hospital rules concerning patient conduct.
- + Keep any appointments that you make, or notify the hospital or clinic as early as possible if you are unable to do so.
- + Do not ask health care providers to provide incorrect information, receipts, documents or certificates or to make incorrect entry into the medical records.
- + Be responsible to meet the required fees and charges for the medical services provided to you.
- + Be responsible for personal belongings you keep in the patient room.
- + Inform your doctor about all the medications that you take including alternative medications (medicinal herbs, teas, pills, etc.).
